

Hi!Tours honoured with two National Tourism Awards 2008-09

Hi!Tours offers a full range of destination management services and tours, won an award for an Outstanding Performance as an Inbound Tour Operator in Category IV. A group company of Hi!Tours, Indus Travels also won the award for Best Overseas Tour Operator for India from the North Americas region at the National Tourism Awards 2008-09.

At a glittering ceremony held at New Delhi, M. Hamid Ansari, the vice president of India presented the National Tourism Awards 2008-09 to Prem Syal, CEO and managing director, Hi!Tours. Also present at the function were Kumari Selja, minister of tourism along with Sultan Ahmed, Union minister of state for tourism, tourism ministers from the various states, senior officials from the central and state governments, corporate leaders from the travel, ly strived to create fantastic journeys and experiences for our customers without compromising on quality. Winning these awards is a proof that our efforts are appreciated and it is definitely a celebration time for us."

"We, with over 20 years of business experience, have crystallised the focus on how to handle every

Prem Syal
CEO & managing director
Hi!Tours

Hi!Tours' Mamallapuram office

Prem Syal, CEO & MD, Hi!Tours receiving award for an Outstanding Performance as an Inbound Tour Operator in Category IV

VM Syal, director, receiving award for Best Overseas Tour Operator for India from the North Americas region

“ We feel honoured and extremely happy to have received these prestigious awards. We, at Hi!Tours, along with our Canada counterparts, have constantly strived to create fantastic journeys and experiences for our customers without compromising on quality. Winning these awards is a proof that our efforts are appreciated and it is definitely a celebration time for us. ”

The awards are presented by the Ministry of Tourism, Government of India to various segments of the travel and tourism industry every year. These awards are presented to the approved travel agents, tour operators, tourist transport operators and many other organisations in from the popular destinations, Thailand, Malaysia, Hong Kong, Singapore and Dubai, the outbound travel division of the company is offering a wide range of holidays to destinations across the world. The Fiji Islands, Cambodia, Vietnam, Jordan, Morocco, Mexico and Peru are just a few of the 'newer' destina-

Indians to destinations across the globe.

"The feedback from both individual and corporate clients has been outstanding in the short period since we started the outbound travel division," said Syal, adding that there was a strong demand for unconventional destinations.

Hi!Tours is a member of major international and domestic trade bodies and associations like IATA, ASTA, PATA, IATO, FHRAI and has got its principal office in New Delhi. Its own offices in India are at Mamallapuram, Chennai, Kochi, Bengaluru and Udaipur. Overseas offices include Vancouver and Madrid and representative offices in UK and Ireland, Italy, Russia. There will be more offices shortly opening up in USA and Australia.

The company offers a winning combination of superior services, unique products and competitive pricing, offering the discerning traveller a wide variety, ranging from culture, nature, wellness, beaches and spiritualism, which destination India has to offer.

The combination of impeccable service, very competitive rates and hi-tech efficiency have made this company the tool to improve the sales for its partner tour operators in the Indian sub-continent.

Hi!Tours offers several types of holidays. Its unique packaging ensures a 'participatory holiday experience' to its customers. The company also has a specialised MICE department to address different client aspects in a host of cities.

A group at a tour organised by Hi!Tours tourism and hospitality industry and other dignitaries.

Speaking on the occasion, Syal said, "We feel honoured and extremely happy to have received these prestigious awards. We, at Hi!Tours, along with our Canada counterparts, have constanttraveller's needs. I take this opportunity to thank everyone in Hi!Tours who reflect our company philosophy of putting the customer at the forefront and driving a pleasurable experience like never before", added Syal.

recognition of their outstanding performances in their respective fields and also to encourage healthy competition with an aim to promote tourism.

Hi!Tours has recently launched a wide range of international holidays. Apart tions on offer by Hi!Tours. The outbound division has set itself a goal to be among the top providers of quality international holidays for

Winner all the way

Hi!Tours offers several types of holidays

Its specialised MICE department addresses different client aspects in a host of cities

Its unique packaging ensures a 'participatory holiday experience' to its customers

It won an award for an Outstanding Performance as an Inbound Tour Operator in Category IV at National Tourism Awards 2008-09

It also won the award for Best Overseas Tour Operator best for India from the North Americas region at the same event

